DEDICATION

This volume of the Black Diamond is very affectionately dedicated to Rebecca Lewis whose careful sponsorship accompanied by smiles of radiance has for a decade guided many to the threshold of a new life, donned them with cap and gown, and sent them with hope into the world of work.

FOREWORD

Lest we forget as the years come and go the activities enjoyed within the sheltering walls of old Pike High, the names and faces of friends from whom we must now depart, we have prepared the following pages to take along in our chest of cherished souvenirs.

THE TERCENTENARY

The Black Diamond this year pays tribute to a three century-long struggle which began formally in 1635, when Boston Latin School, forerunner of the present American high school, established free, public education for the first time in the modern world. Efforts of public high schools to teach youth how to work, to think, to play, have not always availed against civic apathy, but universal, democratic education has endured in principle for three hundred years, as a major factor of the American dream. The creation of an enlightened citizenry, capable of providing a life of peace and abundance for all, is still the hope of those who have not altogether succumbed to selfish interest or hopeless cynicism.

Despite many handicaps, the public schools have steadily gone ahead for three full centuries of time. Education is more liberal. The schools are more democratic, with elected student councils giving youngsters themselves a voice in school policy that starts early training for larger duties of citizenship.

The high school curriculum is constantly expanding, too. Not every student will go to college, nor is it desirable they should, so it becomes important that the high school should train for life. It is doing this today, with courses that fit boys and girls for business and for trades.

The Boston Latin School three hundred years ago offered a handful of boys the Latin classics as their preparation for living. Today over twenty-three thousand high schools, with a quarter of a million teachers, and administrators, are training nearly six million boys and girls to be useful citizens. They are the greatest bulwark that we have against the American problems of American life.

PIKEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

A Short History

The history of Pikeville High School dates back to 1911, when the County Board of Education set aside $125 a month for a period of three months for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a high school. The teachers for the first year were Mr. Rush Deskins and Mrs. Jennie Elliott. The next year, 1912, Professor T. J. Kendrick became superintendent of schools and began at once to build a high school.

The present high school building, erected in 1914, was the next important step in the progress of the school. Much credit is due to the following officials acting at that time: M. F. Campbell, County Superintendent, T. J. Kendrick, City Superintendent; H. E. Yates, J. Mont Bevins, John Coleman, T. J. Trent, W. W. Charles, T. E. Scott, W. O. B. Wright, G. A. Justice, members of the County Board; H. F. Childers, George Pinson Jr., W. E. B. Cline, D. T. Keel, R. T. Huffman, F. T. Hatcher, members of the City Board.

The first graduate of Pikeville High School was Vernon Stump in 1916. The number of graduates has now risen until approximately 100 are graduated annually. The highest number ever to receive diplomas at once was in 1933, when 101 were graduated. The Pikeville High School graduates have made splendid records and rank among the best in business and the professions.

In 1927, Wright Hall and the new grade building and Auditorium were erected. These additions gave the school an opportunity to expand and better care for the large numbers of students taking high school work from all parts of the county.

By the effort of the school officials, and especially Superintendent Oliver, to educate the boys and girls of Pike County, the attendance has gradually risen from 352 in 1925, to 600 in 1935.

Pikeville High School now has sixteen members on its faculty and is well equipped to educate its students. The school provides many extra-curricular activities to develop the students socially and physically. The school is fully accredited with the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

WRIGHT HALL

Wright Hall, the Girls Dormitory of Pikeville High School, is an institution unique in the nation. The increasing numbers of country girls enrolling in Pikeville High School make an acute housing problem, so in 1925, the Pike County School Board purchased the James Sowards' Home, on the corner of Fourth street and Scott Avenue, for use as a girls dormitory.

Wright Hall opened in September, 1925, with Miss Hendricks as Advisor of Girls, and Miss Carey Clark, the Home Economics teacher, as supervisor of the purchase and preparation of foods. Miss Ina Hendricks had direct responsibility for the preparation of foods.

With the double purpose of making the Dormitory function as an educational factor in the lives of the girls, and keeping the price at a minimum, it was planned to operate with student help, so a job list assigning definite tasks of dishwashing, cleaning, and cooking for an hour per day was prepared, to be changed each month so that in a school year, each girl would have experience in doing practically all the kinds of work needed about a home.

Eighteen girls enrolled at the beginning of school. The number grew to thirty-six. A few teachers came in for meals, making the total group forty-three.

In 1926, the building was inadequate to meet the demand from the opening of school. Three cottages were rented, and Miss Lewis, Miss Brown, and Mrs. Ben Bevins were added to the supervisory staff. The number of students increased to eighty, and the school board planned an addition to "Wright Hall" which should provide for future growth.

In 1927, an addition was built which provided Wright Hall with sixty bedrooms, five recreation rooms, five service rooms, and five bathrooms.

Since that time, the group accommodated has ranged from fifty to one-hundred per year. Occasionally a convention or a tournament has filled the building to capacity, for a week end.

A complete history of the groups who have found a home here would fill a library. In the ten years of Wright Hall's history, over three-hundred girls have enjoyed its privileges and grown strong under its responsibilities.

HONOR SENIORS

Grace Cooper

Grace Cooper started her high school career in the year 1931. She has made an outstanding record of which the Pikeville High School is very proud. Her grade average is higher for all four years than any other girl in the Class of '35. Grace has been on the honor roll, with mostly "A's", every month since she has been in high school. She was a guest at the three banquets given at the New York Restaurant in honor of the students who made all "A's" each month for the year 1932.

Besides her regular school work Grace has taken a leading part in many of the extra-curricular activities. She has given much of her time in making the different organizations and clubs greater successes. Grace has also stood by her post of duty on the Pike Hi News Staff for the last four years.

Other girls of the Senior Class of 1935 who have gained honorable mention are, Virginia Day, Ruby Robinson, Marjorie Williams, and Osie Hamilton.

Joe Stephenson

During his high school career, Joe Stephenson has made a record which surpasses that of any other boy. He entered high school here in 1932, starting an honor roll record, with mostly "A's". He has kept this up besides taking a leading part in many extra-curricular activities.

In his Freshman year, Joe was chosen Secretary-Treasurer of the Freshman class. The Juniors, and later, the Seniors followed the excellent example of the Freshman class and elected Joe as their Secretary-Treasurer. With the ordering of rings, pins, bracelets, cards, invitations, etc., it is little wonder that Joe has his hands full. He has belonged to the "Hi-Y" for four years, and has played basketball for two years. This season won a gold basketball for having the highest percentage for foul shooting.

Joe has not gained this honor without competition. He is closely followed by Curtis Coleman, Leonard Roberts, Burton Robinson, and Charles Spears.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

The record of the students who entered Pikeville High School in '32 is completed, now, and has taken its place in the annals of History.

Ninety-six boys and girls make up that august body, the Senior Class of '35. The Class Officers are: Robert Arnold, Pres., Lydia Marie Smith, Vice-Pres., Joe Stephenson, Sec'y-Treasurer, Madalyn Francisco, Seargent-at-Arms, and Cecelia Ann Danburg, Mascot. The class colors are "royal blue and silver," and the motto is, "State your worth, then prove it."

The event that takes the limelight in each Senior's heart is the crowning of June Taylor, the Senior candidate, as Queen of the Hallowe'en Carnival. The Seniors have been exceptionally proud of Robert Arnold, the famous orator of P. H. S.

And in football? How our Senior stars--Bob Venters, Felix Compton, Woodrow Friend, and Ballard McKinney--shine there! The Seniors are also well represented in basketball. Where would old P. H. S. be without Woodrow Friend, Layne Fowler, Charles Spears, Joe Stephenson, and Charles Justice?

The Seniors have taken an active part in many of the school activities, such as Debating, Dramatics, Clubs, the Musical and Oratorical Tournament, etc. and have won many honors for Pike High.

Much of what the Seniors are, they owe to their able Sponsors, Miss Lewis and Mrs. Vicars. As a token of their love and respect for their sponsors, the Seniors presented Miss Lewis with a beautiful radio, and Mrs. Vicars with a cedar chest of candy, for Christmas.

The Seniors have long looked forward to graduation and now they are to experience it. They leave Pikeville High School with faith in the future and their motto in their hearts, "State Your Worth, Then Prove It."

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The Juniors would probably die laughing, if they could see themselves as they were when they entered high school in the fall of 1932. Describing them as green is putting it mildly. They had much to learn, and to their sorrow were to learn it only in the hard school of experience.

The end of the first semester saw these Freshmen well on the first lap. Already promising material could be seen. Some were straining for the lead, while others were holding back.

In the Halloween festival, the popular Freshman candidate for queen, Allena Newton, was runner-up.

At the beginning of their Sophomore year, 1933, the second lap was started. The field was beginning to spread out, the line of distinction had been drawn finer. Some had fallen back, but others had come up to take their places. Here they found that one could not rest on his laurels, and expect to keep his place.

Several turned out for football that year. Among them were: Trimble Pruitt, Ervin Pruitt, and Butler Bales. That year Pikeville tied Louisa for the Big Sandy Conference title.

In the third year, the football team, composed mostly of Juniors, won third place in the Big Sandy Conference. The basketball, and the debating teams were also largely made up of Juniors.

In an inter-class basketball game between the Juniors and the Seniors, the Seniors, much to their chagrin, found themselves dangling at the short end of a 19-13 score.

The Juniors carried on the practice of entertaining the Faculty and Seniors. The party featured a dinner at Wright Hall, followed by the crowning of the Senior May Queen in the Gymnasium.

The third lap is nearly ended. The worst part of the race is over. They have gotten their second wind now but they must not slow down. They must push on. SO HERE'S TO THE "CLASS OF '36"!

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

Our ship of Secondary Education started from Freshman Port on a beautiful day in September, 1933. Each passenger had as his passport, an elementary school diploma. During this lap of the voyage, the passengers who were admitted to the hall of fame were Janice Caudill, Shirley Venters, and Tennessee Maynard, who were candidates for queen of the carnival.

Our crew had started out with gallant hearts, and although we passed many severe storms, we arrived at Sophomore Port, 1934, with the loss of only a few passengers. This year our ship was manned by Miss Irene Brown and Mrs. Helen Meador as Captains and Mr. T. W. Oliver as Admiral.

As we were sailing smoothly through October seas, a great excitement was started on board. The crew and passengers set out to elect their favorite girl as queen of Hallowe'en. Kathryn Bell Williamson, and Shirley Venters were chosen as candidates for the Sophomores. Charles Ishmael was elected King of the festivities.

The games enjoyed on the good ship Secondary Education were football and basketball. Those Sophomores who will be remembered in football were Charles Ishmael, all-conference fullback, Trimble Pruitt, all-conference tackle, and Troy Ratliff, also a valuable man to the team.

The Sophomores out for basketball were Charles Ishmael, Clayton Moore, Joe Scott, and Phil Bovins.

At the port Midterm, Miss Ruth Mae McCown, popular Sophomore passenger, went ashore and married Lacy Carter, but she will continue the journey with us. Miss Pluma Ratliff, another popular Sophomore, won the popularity contest, in the Home Town Jubilee and was elected Miss Pike High.

Thus we sail on to Junior Port.

FRESHMEN HISTORY

There are about one hundred and fifty freshmen, under three home room teachers, Mr. Lowe, Miss Justice and Mr. Hatcher.

The freshmen who are always found on the honor roll are Nell Monia Cassady, Reva Gillum, Rex Cheek, Fred Edmonds, Marvin Sword, Mary Elizabeth Ratliff, Charles McKinney and Harold Taylor Rogers. The three freshmen candidates nominated for Halloween Queen were: Charlotte Hopkins, Ethel Mae Young, and Margaret Pigg. Charles McKinney, Norvil Spears and Bill Jackson were out for football this spring.

At the District Music Tournament, the following freshmen were honored: Columbus Norris was awarded second place in the district music contest for the Cornet Solo. Christine Justice received first in the piano solo. Eleanor Corbin won first place in the soprano voice.

Miss Justice's room is leading in book reading. The average for the room is twenty-four books. There are more Freshmen enrolled at Pikeville High School this year than there has been since the school was founded.

At midterm many new students joined the class. There are three students in Mrs. Vicar's English Class—Fred Edmonds, Reva Gillum, and Harold Taylor Rogers—who are working on the History of Pikeville High School.

The freshmen of today will be better students in their four years of high school than their predecessors, because they have had greater opportunities for learning. Watch out for the freshmen--here they come!

DEBATE TEAM

The Pikeville High School Debate Team, which last year won the County Championship, set the state tournament as their goal for 1934-35. Although having one of the hardest schedules ever attempted by a Pikeville Debate Team, that goal was reached.

The members of the team have won for themselves a prominent place among high school speakers in Kentucky. Robert Arnold was voted the team's most outstanding speaker. He accomplished the difficult feat of debating both the negative and affirmative side of the question equally well. Bob's rebuttals have saved the day on several occasions. Margaret Griffith had the distinction of being the only girl on the team. Reliable, at ease, and always with the old fighting spirit, Margaret set an example for the boys.

This year, Bruce Walters, Ted Hudson, and Ispah Saad entered upon their debating careers. Ispah, with his sense of humor and well-worded rebuttals, was a speaker of which any school could be proud. Bruce and Ted showed themselves to be good sports and good fighters, both in victory and defeat.

Jennifer Lee, an heiress scheduled to marry an Earl, fails to appear in the wedding procession, and escaping to a dude ranch, obtains a position as secretary to the wealthy Mrs. Larrimore.

John Cameron, one of the owners of the ranch, has had an eventful career. The younger son of the Earl of Sherbourne--Eric--and devoted to the older brother, Clarence, he has assumed the responsibility for a disgraceful act of the heir apparent, and has made his way to America accompanied by his friend, Larry Kerrigan, his partner in business. In the meantime, the old Earl dies and Clarence succeeds to the title, having won the hand of Pamela Parnell, Eric's former sweetheart. After the death of the Earl, all communication with Eric ceases, with only the family solicitor knowing his whereabouts. Eric is quite unaware that Clarence has been killed and that a distant cousin, Edmund, through subterfuge, has succeeded to the title.

It is this Edmund who, in search of an American heiress, has been jilted by Jennifer; and his unexpected arrival at the ranch causes complications. Pamela, who happens to be Mr. Larrimore's niece, joins the circle, and the amazing discovery is made that Eric is alive.

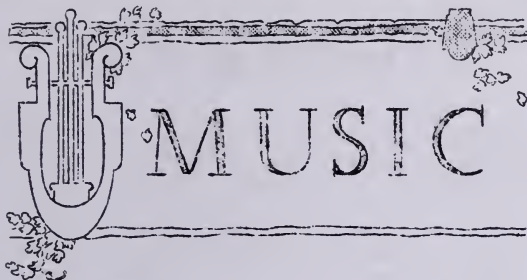

Eric's identity is established and Jennifer finds that, after all, her destiny is the Earl of Sherbourne.

Professor Bronson and his class go on a scientific expedition and find themselves stranded among head hunters. Wyleita, a white girl, reared by the natives, rescues Hank by explaining to the Natives that he is the "Beeka Bozo" (Great Spirit). Strolling in the moonlight is the chief activity of the scientific college gang and even Hank, the old woman-hater, can't resist the charms of his rescuer.

The District Musical Contest and Festival was held in the High School Auditorium at Pikeville on Friday and Saturday, March 22 and 23.

The schools sending entries to the contest were:

Prestonsburg High School
 Betsy Layne High School
 Hellier High School
 Paintsville High School
 Dorton High School
 Pikeville High School

Contests were held for vocal and instrumental numbers for both individuals and groups. Pikeville High School entered eleven of these events and won eight first places, two seconds, and one third. The ratings and groups are as follows:

GIRL RESERVES

The present Girl Reserve Club of Pikeville High School has been organized for many years. It is a branch of the Young Women's Christian Association and is world-wide. It strives to help girls all over the world to see the beauty of life and to get the best out of life. The symbol of the club is the Blue Triangle. One side of the triangle stands for the development of a girl's mind, another for the development of her body and the other for her spirit.

The Girl Reserve officers for this year are: Marjorie Williams, President; Ellen Thornbury, Vice-President; Charlene Vaughn, Secretary and Allena Newton, Treasurer. At the first of school a very beautiful candle-light initiation was held, when a number of new girls joined the club. The club sent three delegates, Allena Newton, Ellen Thornbury, and Charlene Vaughn, to the Annual Conference which was held this year at Mt. Sterling.

Miss Irene Brown is the club sponsor. She has helped make the club a success and encouraged many a girl to higher ideals.

Slogan: "To face life squarely."

THE LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, which has met at Wright Hall for the past year, has prospered considerably. The year started out right by the election of the following officers: President, Jack DuPuy; Vice-President, Juadita Robinette; Secretary and Treasurer, John Paul Compton; Reporter, Paul Nester. The meetings have been successful in planning the programs and the club hands the championship for refreshments over to Mr. Jack Childers.

Several projects including Roman banquets, card parties and "Guess who" parties have been carried out in our meetings. The Roman banquet was held at Wright Hall with Mr. Jack DuPuy as host. His most honored guest was Mr. John Paul Compton. The Latin card parties were a great treat. The game consisted of verb conjugations and the declining of nouns, and principal parts of verbs. At the "guess who" party the several individuals dressed as Roman characters and everyone guessed who they were.

THE FRENCH CLUB

At the beginning of the year The Cercle Francaise met and elected Robert Arnold, President; Grace Cooper, Vice-President; Eleanor Thornbury, Secretary and Treasurer; and Mary K. Markle, Reporter. During the year we have had several interesting meetings. The first meeting was an initiation in which six new members were admitted.

On January 24, the meeting was held at the home of Ruby Robinson and the club was delightfully entertained by an interesting talk given by Miss Emma Malone, from Pikeville College, on her trip to France. The Club met at the home of Ruth Stratton on February 22. About a dozen members enjoyed the meeting by playing French games honoring Washington's birthday. At each meeting the club members sing French songs and we are now able to sing the theme song "Frere Jacques."

The clubs have been sponsored by Miss Rebecca Lewis, head of the foreign language department.

THE TRAVEL CLUB

The Travel Club was organized the first semester by Mr. Irvin Lowe as sponsor. The officers are Robert Arnold, President; Margaret Griffith, Vice-President; June Taylor, Secretary; and Ethlyn Adcock, Treasurer. The club now has thirty members.

The club presented two entertainments during the year to secure funds for a tour. The first was a pie social and square dance given in the gymnasium on January 18. The second was a play "The Man Who Died at Twelve O'clock" presenting Grace Cooper, Leonard Roberts and Lon Ratliff as characters.

When funds were secured we motored to Frankfort and visited the Capitol, the cemetery, reformatory, feeble-minded institution and the New Capitol Hotel. Twenty-two members and six chaperones enjoyed this interesting trip.

PLAY READING CLUB

Under the direction of Miss Hendricks a club was organized this year with Bill Adkins as president; Arminta Roberts, vice-president; and Nora Barrett, secretary, for the purpose of reading and acting out popular plays.

The group meets at Wright Hall every Sunday afternoon and with much pleasure and enlightenment enters into the field of drama. They select one from a shelf of plays, that the director has collected, take a suitable role and reproduce the play.

Not only is this recreational stimulation, but also it is highly educational. It improves one's ability to sight read, to get the thought of reading from the printed page as well as expressing that thought. The club is expected to grow rapidly when students learn that there is no preparation required and that play reading is full of amusement.

The Literary Society was organized October 12, and sponsored by Mr. C. C. Smallwood. The objective of the club is to give training in public speaking and all the programs throughout the year have been planned to this end. Much stress has been put on debating and some first class material has been developed. The club has thirty-two members.

The officers for next year are: Paul Nestor, president; Lon Ratliff, vice-president; Howard Wiley, secretary-treasurer; and Bruce Walters, sergeant-at-arms.

BIBLE STUDY

Every year the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. sponsor a Bible study project through the Girl Reserves and the Hi-Y Organizations in the high schools throughout the state of Kentucky. Pikeville High School has been well represented each year but this year there was a larger attendance than ever before.

The course consisted of seven lessons taken from a booklet "Life or Merely Living", written especially for this project and a final examination covering the entire book. The teachers of the girls were: Miss Irene Brown, Seniors; Miss Catherine Hendricks, Freshmen; Miss Merle Justice, Sophomores; and Miss Rebecca Lewis, Juniors. Many interesting discussions were held and one hundred fifty-eight girls received diplomas for the work, after the examination was taken.

Mr. Garland Stratton, sponsor of the Hi-Y and the boy's division of the Bible Study project, had the ministers of the town conduct the programs for the boys. Rev. Howerton, Rev. Lowe, Dr. Webb, Rev. White, and Rev. Catlin each gave interesting talks to the boys. One hundred and eighty-four boys received diplomas.

ALUMNI

Pikeville High School is a comparatively young high school. It's first graduate was Mr. Vernon Stump, who received his diploma on May 3, 1916. It was presented to him by Col. F. W. Stowers. Since that time, exclusive of 1935, 533 students have been graduated from the high school. The classes graduated each year are as follows:

1916	- - - - -	1	1925	- - - - -	7
1917	- - - - -	6	1926	- - - - -	19
1918	- - - - -	4	1927	- - - - -	28

The annual banquet was held at Louis' Cafe with a most elaborate menu including the traditional fried chicken, olives and strawberry short-cake. Marion Corbin as toastmaster announced the short and snappy program in his own inimitable manner. The high light of the evening was the dance in the high school gymnasium, the first to be held on the school premises.

NEWS AWARDED FIRST CLASS

Placed in Competition with 1200 Papers at Columbia University

The Pike Hi News was awarded First Class Honor rating by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association at the annual meeting held this spring at Columbia University.

Papers do not compete against each other in this contest, but receive their rating on the basis of certain fixed standards of journalism. This rating is made up in detail and sent to the school with criticisms and suggestions.

The News was given a total score of 939 points out of a possible 1000. The sports, editorials, and advertising received the greatest number of perfect or near perfect scores. This is the first year of membership.

PIKE HI NEWS AMONG TEN BEST MIMEOGRAPH PAPERS

During the past year the Pike Hi News has been repeatedly adjudged one of the ten best mimeographed school papers in the United States by the National Mimeograph Exchange.

The general appearance of the paper was greatly improved during the past year by the purchase of two new typewriters—one a regular elite and the other a small elite. This makes it possible to produce a paper that looks more like a newspaper than is possible with the larger sizes of type. The students have been largely responsible for the success of the paper.

NEWS COMPLETES ITS NINTH YEAR

The Pike Hi News is now completing its ninth year of publication.

It was established in the fall of 1926, as a printed five column newspaper. In 1929 it was changed to a two column printed magazine style. It was first produced on the mimeograph during the winter of 1930, and has been so printed since that time.

3 DELEGATES GO TO PRESS MEET

Possibilities of Mimeographed
School Papers Recognized
by Advisers

Three delegates from Pikeville High School attended the meeting of the Kentucky High School Press Association held at Danville, Kentucky, this year. They were: Robert Johnson, Justine Smith, and Grace Cooper, accompanied by Mr. A.L. Danburg as adviser. More than eighty delegates and their advisers attended the convention, which was directed by Professor Victor R. Portmann of the University of Kentucky.

Delegates and advisers were very much interested in the work and possibilities of the mimeographed school paper and annual. As a result of this interest, there should be a special classification for mimeograph papers next year.

PIKE HI NEWS ENTERS TWO NATIONAL CONTESTS

The Pike Hi News has been entered for criticism and competition in the National Scholastic Press Association and the National Mimeograph Exchange. At the time THE BLACK DIAMOND goes to press, the results of these entries have not been received.

Each of these organizations is nation-wide in its scope and is attempting to improve the school papers of the country by constructive criticism and helpful suggestions. This is the first time that the Pike Hi News has ever been a member of any of the national journalism organizations.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

The Business Department of Pikeville High School was organized in the fall of 1925. For some years there had been an ever-increasing demand for well-trained office help in Pike County. This department was established to meet that need. Before that time it was necessary for our young people to go several hundred miles to secure a first--class business education.

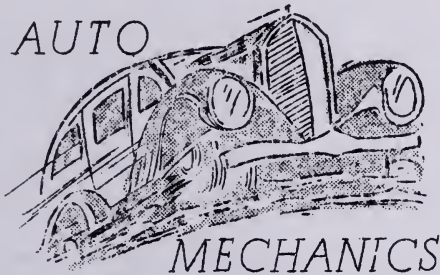

Dr. J. H. Mullin, the first instructor, organized the work and put it on an operating basis. He left in the spring of 1926, and Mr. Arthur L. Danburg of St. Lawrence, South Dakota, came to take charge of the department. The work has been under his direction since that time, except for the three years, from 1931 to 1933, when Mr. Earl Bruce was the teacher.

The addition of Business Training has meant a great deal to Pikeville and Pike County. The young folk who have benefited by this instruction are to be found in the offices throughout eastern Kentucky. The high school provides at little cost the same training as is given by schools when the student must go away from home. Many adults above the regular school age have taken advantage of the opportunity and have received the training.

It has been the policy of the school to offer only a one year course of intensive training, thus shortening the period of actual school attendance. This makes the work available for many who could not otherwise attend. There is now offered one year of Shorthand, one year of Bookkeeping, one year of Typing, one-half year of Business English, and one-half year of Arithmetic.

The equipment used is efficient and up-to-date. There are thirty-five new Underwood typewriters, just installed. The department is also provided with a Burrough's Adding Machine, Mimeograph, Mimeoscope, two Royal typewriters for stencil work. The school is trying to make the work as practical as possible so that the step from school to office will not be so noticeable.

The efficiency of the department is evidenced by the large number of successful young men and women from the school holding positions in Pikeville and the surrounding territory. Several students have already secured permanent positions this year and there will be an additional number available when school closes.

The Auto-Mechanics Department was added to the Curriculum of the Pikeville High School this year for the first time. The course is very practical and trains boys to make a living. The course includes motor and body work, ignition systems, painting, and general repair. Mr. Hersil Johnson has been in charge of the work, and twenty-four boys have taken advantage of the opportunities offered by the course. They are:

COOKING DEPARTMENT
Teacher -- Miss Agnes Scott

Fifty girls have been enrolled in the Cooking classes this year. This department is financed by the girls themselves by the payment of dues of twenty-five cents each month.

The course consists of a plan of seven units which are: Breakfast, modern housewifery, luncheon or supper, dinner, health and child care, hospitality, and miscellaneous items such as, food-stuffs, vitamins, weights and measures, food values of common foods, notebook with classified recipes.

The girls have given several complete dinners this year and have done much of the cooking for the Girls' Dormitory.

SEWING DEPARTMENT
Teacher - Mrs. Joe Vicars

The sewing class of Pikeville High School, with Mrs. Joe Vicars as instructor, has been very successful this year. The girls have made many pretty and useful things. Besides the required sewing the girls have made many of the costumes for the plays given in the school, and have sewed for the teachers and students.

The regular course of study followed covers: Care and operation of the sewing machine; textiles and fabrics; selection of lines, colors, fabrics, cost and suitability; cutting, basting, use of commercial patterns; seams and seam finishes; fitting; decorative stitches, fine finishes.

The progress of the class has been greatly aided by the addition of two new electric sewing machines. Fourteen girls will receive credit for having completed this course.

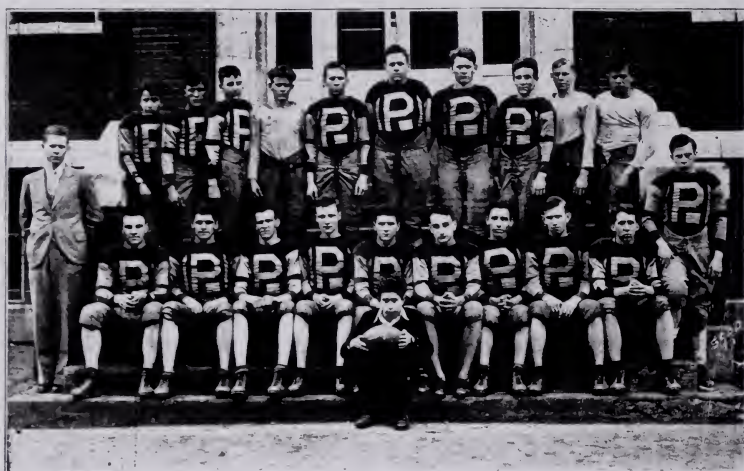

ATHLETICS

COACH HATCHER

Cassius B. Hatcher, men's athletic director, completed another successful year in leading the Pikeville Panthers. This marks another step of progress in both football and basketball at Pikeville, due largely to the leadership of Coach Hatcher, whose teams have played hard, clean, sportsmanlike games.

Coach Hatcher, a graduate of Kentucky Wesleyan and star athlete has been at the head of Pikeville High School athletics since he came here, two years ago.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

The Panthers began practice a week before school started with fifteen men reporting. After school opened, twenty-five more reported for duty, most of them without much previous experience but with high hopes for a successful season.

The hard working Panthers journeyed to Martin to take a scrimmage game to the tune of 20-0. Both teams made fine showings for the amount of practice they had had. Bob Parsons received a fractured wrist and Buster Morris a fractured collar bone, the only serious accidents of the entire season.

The Panthers swam, waded, and sloshed up and down the field over the Van Lear Bankmules, on a field that was literally covered with water, to block a punt and score the only tally of the game.

The Belfry Pirates sailed to Pikeville to make the Pikeville Panthers walk the plank to the tune of 8-0. This was the first time that the Panthers ever suffered defeat at the hands of another Pike County team.

Smarting under the Belfry defeat, the Panthers played a wonderful game against the Paintsville Tigers, coming out with the most first downs, most yardage and the biggest score.

The highly touted Williamson Wolfpack came over to take charge of the game for the first three and a half quarters, but the last seven minutes of the game were ours. We scored two touchdowns and one extra point to tie up the score. The boys played a really inspired brand of football.

The Panthers overwhelmed the Fleming eleven 39-7 in the last home game. The game was kept interesting by the numerous passes with which both teams darkened the sky.

The Panthers invaded Virginia only to have their toes stepped on to the tune of 14-6 by the Appalachia High School.

The team was then defeated by their traditional rival, Prestonsburg, 13-0. The Panthers out-played the Black Cats in every phase of the game except scoring.

THE BLACK DIAMOND - 1935

Breaking the jinx that has dogged them for the past few years, the Panthers downed the Louisa Bulldogs by the score of 19-6 in the annual Thanksgiving game. The Panthers held a big margin of power throughout the entire game. This game spelled "finis" for the football career of Captain Bob Venters, and was it not "poetic justice" that he should score the last touchdown against this traditional rival?

The men in the backfield who did great things this season were Dutch Ishmael, Bobby Venters, Tubby Ratliff, Junior Wiggins, and Buster Norris and the men who made these great things possible were Ervin and Trimble Pruitt, Ispir Sand, Hershel Good, Alvin Childers, Bob Parsons, Ballard McKinney, Ted Hudson, Bud Bales, Daniel Hopkins, E. J. Risenour, Orville Ratliff, Felix Compton, and Charles McKinney.

The Panthers have played exceptionally fine football this season and have shown dignity, good will, and sportsmanship throughout all their games, in victory or in defeat, and we are proud of their splendid record.

BASKETBALL REVIEW

This year's basketball season was not so successful for the Panthers, due to the loss of material by graduation in '34. The squad was composed almost entirely of inexperienced players. They played sixteen games and despite the fact that they were on the short end of the score in all but six games, they displayed great sportsmanship in defeat as well as in victory.

The most thrilling game of the season was played on the night of February 8 with the Betsy Layne Bobcats. The score was 23-22 in favor of the Bobcats with only thirty seconds left to play when Daniel Hopkins caged two free throws to make the score 24-23 and the Panthers the winners.

In the District Tournament, held at Elkhorn, the Panthers met Pikeville College Academy Cubs in the hardest fought game of the tourney. The Panthers led all through the first half but in the third quarter the Cubs drew ahead and the game ended with the Cubs winners by a score of 21-16. Bruce Walters and Dutch Ishmael were each awarded sportsmanship medals. Ted Hudson was pronounced "The Most Handsome Boy" who played in the tournament.

Joe Stephenson was awarded a gold basketball by Coach Hatcher for the highest percentage in free throws during the season. His percentage was .834. Dutch Ishmael and Bill Venters led the squad in scoring.

George and Layne Fowler came here from Barboursville just in time to secure a position on the squad. They played very well and fought hard throughout the season. Jim Dotson and Buster Morris were two hard-fighting forwards. This was their first year to play on the varsity.

Since only three members of the squad are graduating, the Panthers feel sure of a most successful season next year. Under the capable hands of Coach Hatcher they should develop into the strongest team anywhere on the river.

BULLDOGS

The Bulldogs, on the whole, have been successful this season. They won five games and lost five (not including tournament games). They won the "B" team tournament by defeating Hellier 23-11 in the semifinals and McVeigh 22-17 in the finals. They placed four men out of ten on the all-tournament teams. "Abe" Blackburn and "Little Wiggins", both forwards made the first team. "Red" Spears, center, and "Bullet" Moore, guard, made the second all-tournament team.

"Little Wig" was high point man of the season. Joe Scott, guard proved to be a valuable man by "knocking them down the throats" of his opponents and by sinking several long shots when they were badly needed. "Ed" Ewen and Malloy Clark, forwards, could be depended on, on offense or defense. "Slim" Maynard was tall enough to do his share on the tip-off. "Phil" Bevins and Fred Moore always did their bit and fought hard when called upon.

These Bulldogs were coached to the "B" Team Championship by Harmon "Pete" Day, formerly a student of Pikeville High School, now a student at Pikeville College.
